Supervisor Antonovich made the following statement:

“Responsible and resourceful management practices are key ingredients in the successful operation of Los Angeles County government, business, and industry.

“The National Management Association, with over 24,000 members Nationwide, advocates sound management practices and is devoted to the success of our free enterprise system through the important contributions of its members’ talents and energies to ensure the smooth operation of business.

“This year marks the 27th Annual Management Week in the United States, highlighting the development and recognition of management as a profession and the promotion of our American competitive enterprise system.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried (Supervisors Burke and Yaroslavsky being absent), the Board proclaimed June 5 through 11, 2005 as “Management Week” throughout Los Angeles County.
